

Sailability Scotland SCIO Tack-Tick June 2017

✓ The racing season is well underway with two of the Travellers series completed. Craig Moffett is continuing his superb sailing from last year and remains unbeaten. The result table so far is Gold fleet:

1. Craig Moffett
2. Ann Ritchie
3. John McPartlin
4. Stephen Thomas Bate
5. Dorothy Bennett

And the bronze fleet table:

1. Jamie Scott
2. Lorna Turnbull

✓ Dorothy has been writing racing reports that go in Yachts and Yachting, you can read the last report from the T2 on their website. Many thanks to Dorothy for doing this.

✓ The T3 is taking place on 10/11 June and reparations are well underway. We have had a meeting with Solway Yacht Club to look at the venue. It is a stunning location and the club look all set to make this a great event. The Shore Force will help with all aspects, from being runners, to boat building, to launching and recovery.

✓ The Scottish Open Challenger Championships (SOCC) is being held in the South West of Scotland at Kippford this year and entries should be submitted by the 7th June as per the Notice Of Race (NOR) on Solway Yacht Club's website.

Scotland SCIO

✓ New Sailability Scotland SCIO group for Sailability Scotland. You can now check for upcoming events and save the page as a shortcut. Be sure to join our new group.

✓ T4 is at Loch Earn on 15/16 July this year. Also, if you don't mind travelling the Welsh Open Challenger Championships are taking place on 22/23 July. Further details are available on our website and Facebook page.

Sailability

Scotland SCIO

Scottish Charity Number SC047162