

Scotland SCIO

Scottish Charity Number SC047162

Sailability Scotland SCIO Privacy Notice

What we need

For the purposes of General Data Protection Regulations Sailability Scotland SCIO will be a “controller” of the personal information that you provide to us in this form, unless otherwise stated.

When you register as a member of Sailability Scotland SCIO or renew your membership (including if you are registering or renewing on behalf of a child under the age of 18), we may ask you for the following personal information:

- contact details – name, address, email address, and date of birth (if u 18); and
- membership category – Active or Associate

Why we need your personal information – contractual purposes

We need to collect our members’ personal information so that we can manage your membership. We will use our members’ personal information to:

- provide you with core member services, including: insurance, licensing and PVG checks;
- set up your online membership account and administer your account online: and
- send you membership communications by post or email in relation to essential membership services, including but not limited to, planned activities, membership renewals and information on membership benefits.

If you do not provide us with all of the personal information that we need to collect then this may affect our ability to offer the above membership services and benefits.

Why we need your personal information – legitimate purposes

We also process our members’ personal information in pursuit of our legitimate interests to:

Sailability Scotland SCIO, Caledonia House,
1 Redheughs Rigg, Edinburgh EH12 9DQ
Scottish Charity No. SC047162

- promote and encourage participation in the sport of Sailing by sending members' communications and booking information for upcoming competitions and events. Our competitions and events may be filmed or photographed and your personal information may also be used in images captured from our competitions and events, which we use for promotional, education and development purposes;
- provide competition in the sport of Sailing by accepting and managing entries for our competitions and checking your personal information to ensure you are entered into the correct category;
- develop and maintain our members' qualifications, including sending email communications to members to inform you of upcoming courses, renewal requirements and verify that you have completed any mandatory training and PVG / child protection requirements; and
- respond to and communicate with members regarding your questions, comments, support needs or complaints, concerns or allegations in relation to the sport of Sailing. We will use your personal information to investigate your complaint, suspend membership and take disciplinary action where appropriate.

Where we process your personal information in pursuit of our legitimate interests, you have the right to object to us using your personal information for the above purposes.

If you wish to object to any of the above processing, please contact us on info@sailabilityscotland.org.uk. If we agree and comply with your objection, this may affect our ability to undertake the tasks above for the benefit of you as a member.

Why we need your personal information – legal obligations

We are under a legal obligation to process certain personal information relating to our members for the purposes of complying with our obligations under the Protection of Vulnerable Groups (Scotland) Act 2007 to check that our coaches and volunteers are able to undertake regulated work with children and vulnerable adults.

Other uses of your personal information We may ask you if we can process your personal information for additional purposes. Where we do so, we will provide you with an additional privacy notice with information on how we will use your information for these additional purposes.

Who we share your personal information with

We may be required to share personal information with statutory or regulatory authorities and organisations to comply with statutory obligations.

Such organisations include the Health & Safety Executive, Disclosure Scotland, and Police Scotland for the purposes of safeguarding children.

We may also share personal information with our professional and legal advisors for the purposes of taking advice. As an affiliated group of RYA we are required to ensure that all of our members are members of RYA as a condition of affiliation. We will share your name and membership category with RYA who will become a controller of your personal information when they receive it.

RYA's privacy notice explains how they use your personal information and can be accessed here <http://www.rya.org.uk/legal-info/Pages/privacy-security-and-data-protection.aspx> .

In the event that we do share personal information with external third parties, we will only share such personal information strictly required for the specific purposes and take reasonable steps to ensure that recipients shall only process the disclosed personal information in accordance with those purposes.

How we protect your personal information

Your personal information is stored on our electronic filing system and our servers based in the UK, and is accessed by our staff and volunteers for the purposes set out above.

How long we keep your personal information

We will only keep your personal information for as long as necessary to provide you with membership services. Unless you ask us not to, we will review and possibly delete your personal information where you have not renewed your membership with us for six years.

Your rights

You can exercise any of the following rights by writing to us at info@sailabilityscotland.org.uk